NEW HOME

Less than a year old

AS I am moving to another state I am selling my home. A distinctive ranch-house style—one floor plan, with screened-in breezeway and attached garage with an overall length of 56 ft.

Large living room with built in bookcases and dinette, two bedrooms with cross ventilation. Big bath with built in wardrobe and linen closets. Beautiful kitchen with built in cabinets and work counters — has the best kitchen sink on the market. Cheerful breakfast nook with large window, laundry room with built-in laundry trays and gas automatic water heater. This room connects breakfast nook and garage. The garage is 24 ft. x 16 ft.—concrete floor, overhead steel doors, large enough for workshop, plenty of storage space and ample room to dry laundry.

Floors, walls and ceilings of this home are insulated and is heated with a Coleman gas furnace. Generous size closets in every room. Venetian blinds in living and bedroom.

Nicely landscaped—has large outdoor fireplace. 80 ft. frontage.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

COLE PORTER, born June 9, 1892, is a rich boy who became one of the outstanding song writers of the world. He tried law school at his father's request, but soon quit to write songs. He joined the French army in World War I. Later, he and his wife had fine homes in several cities and resorts. They are famed for their parties. But Porter, a sophisticate of sophisticates, never forgets he was born in a small town, Peru, Indiana.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

Harry broke about even on his trip west . . . He collected a pair of spurs, a peace pipe and a pound of beet sugar and lost a state chairman.

* * *

However he has a large number of state chairmen left and if he uses his sugar, spurs and peace pipe judiciously he should be able to hold them.

* * *

There is still some question as to whether his speeches are political. There weren't enough witnesses at Omaha to testify.

* * *

Meanwhile Republicans have stopped yowling about the trip. In fact I heard they want to lay out three more itineraries for Harry before the Democratic convention.

* * *

A Republican always ends up feeling that everything is for the best . . . They're strange people.

Measurements show that at the mouth of the Hudson river the tidal elevation on the New York side is about one inch greater than on the New Jersey shore opposite.
